

THE CHOICES SHE MADE

by Felicia Ferguson

www.FeliciaFergusonAuthor.com

Discussion Questions

Basics.

What did you like best/least about this book?

What was your favorite quote from the book. Why?

How does the book's title relate to its contents?

How well does the book's cover convey its theme and story?

What format did you use to read/listen to the book?

Characters.

Which character would you most like to meet?

If you could hear this same story from another character's point of view, who would you choose?

Did the characters seem believable? Did they remind you of anyone?

If you were casting a movie, who would play each character?

Story.

Was the pacing— beginning, middle, and end— done well? Did it feel too fast/too slow/just right?

Did the characters' motives and reactions seem reasonable or far-fetched?

What would you have done if faced with the same issues?

How have you leaned on your faith in times of trial? Was trusting God during those times easy or a struggle?

Take-Away.

Would you read another book by Felicia? Why? Why not?

If you could ask Felicia one question about this book, what would it be?

Who would you recommend to read this book? Why?

What is the most memorable moment for you from this book?